.....Respondent.

HON'BLE THE ACTING CHIEF JUSTICE BILAL NAZKI
AND
HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE RAMESH RANGANATHAN

WRIT APPEAL No.1036 OF 2007

JUDGMENT : (Per Hon'ble Sri Justice Bilal Nazki, ACJ)

This appeal is filed by the respondent in Writ Petition No.20603 of 2007. The writ petitioner had stated before the Court that certain EMD and FS deposits were not returned to him, which he had deposited at the time of execution of certain works. The appellants had stated before the Court that the Corporation was not able to secure the details with reference to the EMD and FS deposits. Then the Court gave a direction to the writ petitioner to furnish the details of the works with reference to which EMD and FS deposits were not returned and after his furnishing the information, the appellants had to decide whether the writ petitioner was entitled to any amounts or not.

We do not think that appellants have any grievance which can be looked into in this writ appeal. The learned Single Judge has not ordered any payment, but only directed the appellants to consider the case of the writ petitioner, provided he furnishes the details. It is submitted by the learned counsel for appellants that the respondent-writ petitioner has not furnished the details.

Unless the respondent furnishes the details, the appellants are not bound to pass any orders. Therefore, this writ appeal is misconceived and is accordingly dismissed.
